

@ Newton Public Library
720 North Oak, 7:00 p.m., Bessmer Meeting Room

Wednesday, January 23     Quite a Year for Plums
by Bailey White Discussion Leader: Kim Stanley, McPherson College

Wednesday, February 20     Standing in the Rainbow
by Fannie Flagg
Discussion Leader: Thomas Prasch, Washburn University

Wednesday, March 12     Walking Across Egypt
by Clyde Edgerton
Discussion Leader: Cheryl Hofstetter Duffy, Fort Hays State University

Thursday, April 17     How Elizabeth Barrett Browning Saved My Life
by Mameve Medwed
Discussion Leader: Michaeline Chance-Reay, Kansas State University

Sign up to borrow books for the TALK On the Lighter Side discussion series by contacting NPL. Every book discussion is free and open to the public. TALK is a program of the Kansas Humanities Council. For more information contact Marilyn Schmidt, 316-283-2890, or email: mschmidt@newtonplks.org.

