TALK Discussion Explores "Kansas at 150"

The second of a four-part book discussion series exploring the theme "Kansas at 150" is scheduled for Wednesday, February 29, at 7 pm.

Diane Quantic, retired teacher of English at Wichita State University, leads a discussion of Ordinary Genius by Thomas Fox Averill.

The series is sponsored by the Kansas Humanities Council, a nonprofit organization, as part of its Talk About Literature in Kansas (TALK) program. To check out books, contact the library.

Trained volunteers provide assistance for low to moderate income taxpayers through April 16. Times of assistance are: Mondays - 5:30-8 pm; Wednesdays - 2-5 pm; Thursdays - 1-3:30 pm; and Saturdays - 9:30 am - noon (no assistance on February 25). More information on sign-up procedures and items to bring available from the Library.
